Our members say:

JIB membership helps with the recruitment of new employees and also to retain our current staffing levels in an ever-changing industry.

The JIB agreement removes a large administrative burden from our company and provides a consistent and structured basis for employment of electricians and apprentices. It also helps to maintain standards of training within the industry.

The JIB agreement in my opinion is the backbone of the JIB and what it is and should continue to be recognised and appreciated for.

JIB membership is seen as a high standard within the industry, and it is beneficial to be recognised as a member of the JIB.

In 2025 members would like:

- Increased promotion of JIB members
- Market, industry and legislative updates
- Skills Development Fund and CPD promotion
